

For Parents

This week your child has been learning about church as a community of people who share special stories.

You might like to bring your child to church this week and show them a Bible and read one or two Bible stories to him or her.

Draw a picture of your favourite Bible story