

For Parents

This week your child has been continuing to explore story and in particular a story of parental love. Where appropriate they have been encouraged to understand this love as part of God's love for the child. You might like to ask your child about the story of the penguin. You might like to pray/reflect with your child on the ways in which parents show love for children and vice-versa.