

For Parents

This week your child has been exploring home and in particular, sharing their home with others. You might like to talk with your child about all the different people who have been welcomed into your home. You might like to pray/reflect with your child on the importance of welcoming all.