

Junior Infants/Term 1/Lesson 10

What we're doing

- Story: Guess How Much I Love You, Kevin and the Bird
- Song: What the Story Will Be
- Conversation: The love that Little Nutbrown Hare feels for his father; the love children have for their families
- Worksheet: Guess How Much I Love You
- Activity: Present Wrapping
- Quiet time

At school

1. Listening attentively to the stories.
2. Chatting with teacher and class about the love they have for their families and how they can show this love.
3. Thinking about how we can show love to our families.
4. Singing about the story we will listen to this week.

At home

- Talk to your child about the love your family has for each other, and the ways in which you can show this love.
- For parents of a faith tradition, talk/pray with your child about the love that God has for all creation.

Why?

To indulge children's love of story so that, being nourished narratively, they may develop as story-tellers and story listeners.

Where appropriate and with the help of the family, to grow in appreciation of the stories of their religious tradition.

Our families love and care for us. They keep us safe and make us happy. Think about all the things you can do to show your family that you love them too.

When it is quiet time we sit quiet and still....
