

For Parents

This week, by focusing on all the factors that influence the growth of the apple, your child has been exploring the interconnectedness of weather, insects, plants and humans. You might like to pray/reflect with your child on the beauty and bounty of our natural world in Autumn and the appreciation of nature's goodness within your own faith or belief tradition.