

For Parents: this week your child has been exploring living with others, or "Community". You might like to pray/reflect with your child on the importance of having, and being, good neighbours.