

For Parents
This week your child has been exploring friendship-in-difference. We all belong in a unique family. Our families are different from each other but we can be friends and our families can be friends. You might like to pray/reflect with your child on difference and friendship.